Summer Hymn Sings:

An Asbury Tradition

Each summer we start our July and August worship services with three hymns chosen by the congregation as their favorites. Our hymn sing leaders assist by providing background information or a personal memory about each hymn. Leaders select a total of 8 verses from the 3 hymns of the day.

You are welcome to participate by serving as a hymn sing leader/family. Please see Jan Swanson at the piano in the Great Room after worship. The following dates are still available: July 15, 22, 29 and August 5.

PIN Garden Helpers Needed

Can you help maintain the garden at the church and deliver the produce to People In Need (PIN) this summer? We need volunteers to sign-up for weeks in July, August, and September. For more information, see Ruth Ward in the Great Room after worship.

The Asbury Campaign for Watoto Read will raise $10,000 to build and furnish an adobe classroom and latrine for 60 children in a refugee camp in Chad! Each week throughout the summer, we will all learn more about Watoto Read and have opportunities to support this ambitious effort. Rev. Claudine Leary, co-founder of Watoto Read and Director of Development at MTSO, will preach this morning at Asbury and share some of her story as a young Rwandan refugee in Africa.
