Summer Hymn Sings: An Asbury Tradition

Each summer we start our July and August worship services with three hymns chosen by the congregation as their favorites. We sing the hymns that have received the most votes from folks who fill out the Hymn Sing request sheets which are included in the June bulletins. All votes are tallied, then the hymns are ranked in order of vote total. Usually we are able to select all hymns receiving 3 or more votes, and a few of those receiving less than 3 votes.

Hopefully you will be present on the Sunday when we sing one of your choices. Our hymn sing leaders have the fun of deciding how we do the hymns – and choosing a total of 8 verses from the 3 hymns of the day. If you would enjoy being a leader for one of our Sundays, be sure to let me know. Thanks for your input in what has become a special part of our summer worship services.

-Sally Casto

*Today is the final day to submit your choices.
