

ASBURY Organ SERIES

2018

2019

Asbury's First Thursday Noontime Recital Series

12:15 to 12:45 pm

- October 4 Luke Tegtmeier ~ The new Organist at Asbury kicks off the season with a variety of works by composers from Germany, where our Klais organ was built. Luke has Church Music degrees from Valparaiso University and Luther Seminary.
- November 1 Heather Orvek ~ Having recently received a Master's in Organ performance from Arizona State, Heather is currently Organist at Riverside UMC in Upper Arlington.
- December 6 Joseph Musser ~ Dr. Joseph Musser, Organist at First Presbyterian Church in Delaware, and a regular performer on our series, returns to offer music for Advent and Christmas.
- January 3 Jason Keefer ~ Dr. Keefer is Principal Organist at the Pontifical College Josephinum in Columbus and Organ Artist-in-Residence at Covenant Presbyterian Church in Upper Arlington. He is also Director of the Sacred Music Institute of America.
- February 7 Brent Nolte ~ Dr. Nolte serves as Music Department chair at Ohio Christian University. He holds a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Organ Performance from the University of Minnesota.
- March 7 Rebecca Abbott ~ Dr. Abbott is an Adjunct Professor of Music at Mount Vernon Nazarene University and recently took over the important duty of teaching students in the Asbury Organ Academy.
- April 4 James Hildreth ~ For his first appearance in this series, James Hildreth, Organist at Broad Street Presbyterian Church in Columbus and Instructor of Organ at Ohio Wesleyan University, will present a varied program of music for Lent.
- May 2 Carol Ann Bradley ~ Organist at Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church in Marble Cliff, Carol returns to our series and will close our season with a flourish!

Asbury's First Thursday recitals are offered for the enjoyment of our community. Coffee and tea are provided and tables set for those who would like to bring their lunch to eat during the concert. Please invite a friend and come to enjoy the music that our guest recitalists have so graciously prepared for us.

Asbury United Methodist Church

55 W. Lincoln Avenue • Delaware, Ohio

Asbury is handicapped accessible from its rear parking lot entrance.